About Abacus Counselling, Training & Supervision Ltd

Abacus Counselling, Training & Supervision Ltd was formed in 2002 by four health professionals, and now has a staff team of nine, along with a wide range of contracted staff nationally.

Abacus has been an NZQA registered training provider since 2004 and its focus is primarily addictions training and professional supervision, along with counselling and other non-addiction training.

Services are delivered nationwide, including national professional supervision contracts, and problem gambling clinical workforce development.

CMDHB is a particular focus for Abacus, with addiction training services being delivered under contract since 2007 for specialist AOD services, health related services, non-specialists and consumer services in the region.
